

CANADA

More and more Britons are making the move to the 'Big Country', attracted by the outdoors lifestyle, safety and value for money. Vancouver is a popular city option while in the east Quebec is favoured for its shorter flight-time to the UK.

ASIA

China and India, both global economic power houses, have growing middle classes which are fuelling a property boom and offering buy-to-let opportunities. Thailand's appeal is in the lifestyle – tropical beaches and affordable way of life.

SOUTH AFRICA

Your pounds go a long way here. The Cape province is popular for its wine regions, balmy climate and relaxed lifestyle. Kwa-Zulu Natal is home to numerous game parks. The Football World Cup in 2010 is attracting investment.

AUSTRALASIA

Australia is our number one emigration destination – Melbourne, Sydney, Perth are favourites. New Zealand's laid-back lifestyle is equally alluring.

REST OF THE WORLD

- ✓ Established and emerging property markets
- ✓ More long-haul flights
- ✓ More for your money

STAR PROPERTY

Resort-style relaxation

Thailand: from £125,000

What you get The Sea is a luxury beachfront development on the northern coast of Koh Samui. It's a 20-minute drive from the airport and is close to the island's golf club.

The development consists of one and two-bedroom apartments, some of which boast private pools, and six exclusive three-bedroom villas, each with their own pool. Residents will also benefit from access to a large communal swimming pool, full resort-style management and a full range of hospitality services.

Contact Sinthoranee Property: 01772 623987; www.TheSeaSamui.com.

India: from £30,000

What you get A one-bedroom apartment in Goa's all-inclusive La Gardenia Resort, 650 metres away from Mandrem Beach. Contact Navy Roof: 020 7242 2452; www.navyroof.com.

Morocco: from £86,955

What you get A furnished and managed hotel-apartment in Agadir with a two year minimum rental return at eight per cent. Contact Brooks Global Property: 023 8076 0468; www.brooksglobalproperty.com

Search for more properties in the Rest of the world at

A Place in the Sun.com